Notice of Meeting

As per the decision made during the 12th ELC meeting held on 05/11/2024, the Entertainment Licensing Committee of Phuentsholing Thromde invites all entertainment license holders to attend the advocacy program focused on the adaptation of rules and regulations within entertainment centers, raising awareness on issues of sexual harassment, Public health, employee's welfare, and educating both staff and patrons on the prevention of drug-related incidents.

Details of the event:

- Date: 28/11/2024
- Time: 10:30 AM
- Venue: Phuentsholing Thromde's Conference Hall

Your participation is vital in creating a culture of respect and safety within our community. Please prioritize this program, as the information shared will be essential for our collective growth and responsibility.

To ensure the effectiveness of the event, we kindly request the attendance of all the entertainment license holders along with a representative from your staff working at your entertainment center. Your active participation will play a crucial role in promoting a safer and more inclusive entertainment experience for all.

We appreciate your attention and look forward to your valuable contribution to this important advocacy program.

Best regards,

(Uttar Kumar Rai)
